GOD'S PROVIDENCE: Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

THE VOICE OF THE LORD: What is more delightful than the voice of the Lord calling to us?—St. Benedict

Congratulations to our new Acolytes: Charlie Clymer Jeff Ellis, Jerry Hauck & Roger Moroney. You have been instituted and commissioned by Bishop Joseph Strickland on Saturday, June 29, 2019. We are very grateful to our new Acolytes who have responded to the invitation by committing themselves to serve at Mass in this ministry. Let us congratulate these men and offer our prayerful support as they take up this ministry at Holy Spirit.

Welcome!: All visitors to our beautiful East Texas community of Holy Lake Ranch are welcome to visit our Prayer Garden directly behind our parish hall to pray and worship with us. If you are Catholic, and have recently received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you are also invited to share in the Holy Eucharist. If you are not a practicing Catholic, we invite you to come forward with arms crossed over your chest to receive a sacramental blessing. Pray that we all continue to grow together into the body of Christ, to which the Lord calls us.
