GRACE AND ETERNAL LIFE

Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven't we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven't we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining . . . impatient . . . quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don't even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God's forgiveness and grace.

Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God's favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ's grace on us along with God's love and the Holy Spirit's. "Rejoice," he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus.

One can Give without Loving...
 But one cannot Love without Giving.

I am so grateful for the support that our parishioners has given during these bumpy days, weeks and months. You always come through in the time of need. Thank you for taking the time to send in your contributions plus more above and beyond.

I truly appreciate each and every one of you.

Rev. Fr. Mike Snider

Do you know how many mass emails are sent out on a weekly basis since the COVID-19 started? There are 147 contacts set up and sent out weekly with our bulletin. 55% of you often open & click emails. 12% of you sometimes open & click emails. 27% rarely open & click emails. Then 6% does not open the emails.

We are now down to mailing 25 bulletins to the households that do not have internet.

Let's give a BIG welcome to our new parishioners:

Pat & Terrie Bonneville

Matt & Allison Maggard
(Dn Len & Eloise Daughter & Son-In-Law)

Danny & Elizabeth Muzyka

Bryan & Rose Todd

Dispensation: The entire diocese remains dispensed from the Sunday and holy day Mass obligation until further notice. The faithful are under no moral obligation to attend Mass at this time. Before deciding to attend Mass, everyone is asked to consider their own health condition and living situation carefully. All vulnerable individuals should continue to stay at home. Members of households with vulnerable residents should be aware that they could carry the virus back home. People who feel sick or have symptoms of possible COVID-19 MUST remain at home.

Confessions: Tues., 6/9; Wed., 6/10; Thurs., 6/11 from 9:00—10:30am. Confessions rain or shine, cold or hot weather. I will be parked in front of the double glass doors that you enter into the Narthex, under the overhang, seated in my front seat of my car. Please drive up and park your vehicle 6 feet from my vehicle and stay in your vehicle. Roll your window down, turn motor off and start your confession. After, your confession, you may drive around to our meditation garden, to say your penance.

Food donations: Thank you so much for the nonperishable goods that you donated last weekend. These items were very helpful to the people in need.

We are still in need of can spaghetti sauce with meat. Plastic container is located in the parish hall for now. We have been feeding 70—90 people per week. Please call or email Bob Mailliard at 903-769-3963 or theduckdude@att.net if you know someone that needs help or if you have questions for Bob.

Congratulations on your graduation and warm wishes for a happy and successful future to Logan Mrdak, graduate of Hawkins High School, attending TJC (Melinda Hlavenka's grandson).

Second Collections for the month of June:

6th & 7th: Building & Maintenance

20th & 21st: Retired Priest of the Diocese of Tyler

27th & 28th: Peter's Pence (Pontifical Collection)

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
