MAY 23, 2021

Jesus breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

John 20:22-23

As followers of Jesus, we are called to direct our minds and hearts to Christ's love, turning away from all that is not of God in order to be more Christ-like in our daily lives. The more we invite the Holy Spirit to draw us close to God's heart, the more readily we will avoid sin and choose life, faith, and love. In the letter to the Galatians, we hear a list of things that those who live in the Spirit are to avoid. Things like immorality, hatred, jealousy, and selfishness. At first glance, we might think to ourselves, "of course I want to avoid those things," and yet, if we are honest with ourselves, we likely recognize some of those patterns in our lives. Upon further reflection, however, we also see that these negative behaviors pose temporary pleasure while the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control—lead to a life of deep and lasting fulfillment.

They spoke many languages and yet were drawn to hear the message of Christ from the disciples who had just experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. They were astonished by what they heard—not only the message, but the way in which it was conveyed, in their own language, and by the messengers, people whom they would have considered ordinary and unremarkable, rather than the acknowledged religious leaders of their time. We, too, are called to share the love and mercy of Christ through word and action, even when we feel small and insignificant. We need only to look at the witness and experience of those first disciples and all the saints who have preceded us to know that we are capable of much when we place our lives in God's hands. Nothing can stand in the way of the incredible love of God when we are filled with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit!

Pope's Intention for May:

The world of finance. Let us pray that those in charge of finance will work with governments to regulate the financial sphere and protect citizens from its dangers.

A PRAYER TO THE SPIRIT

Holy Spirit,

who sent Christ Jesus

to carry the Good news to the poor,

we pray to you:

Help us to continue your work

by serving the poor, our brothers and sisters.

LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

Article for the Big Sandy-Hawkins Journal. 19 May 2021 Edition
(Submission date: 14 May 2021) Submitted by Randy Munoz

{Continuing from last week, we examine the last ecumenical councils of the Catholic Church.}

11. Lateran III: year – 1179; Pope Alexander III, 1159-1181; Emp. Barbarossa, 1152-1190
Decisions: Regulated papal elections by requiring a 2/3rds vote of the cardinals; condemned Waldensianism and Albigensianism (a form of Manichaeism – an ancient heresy that held that matter is evil. Albigensians opposed the authority of the state and of the Church, opposed the sacrament of matrimony, and practiced ritual suicide).

12. Lateran IV: year – 1215; Pope Innocent III, 1198-1216; Emperor Otto IV, 1209-1215
Decisions: Ordered annual receipt of penance/ Eucharist; used “transubstantiation” to explain the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist; adopted further canons against Albigensians.

13. Lyons I: year – 1245; Pope Innocent IV, 1243-1254; Emperor Frederick II, 1220-1250
Decisions: Excommunicated/deposed Frederick II for heresy and crimes against the Church.

14. Lyons II: year – 1274; Pope Gregory X, 1271-1276; Emperor Rudolf I, 1273-1291
Decisions: Effected only temporary union of the Eastern Churches with the Roman Church; promulgated regulations for conclaves.

15. Vienne: year – 1311; Pope Clement V, 1305-1314; Emperor Henry VII, 1308-1313
Decisions: Suppressed the Knights Templars; issued decrees on the reform of morals.

16. Constance: year – 1414; Pope Gregory XII, 1406-1415; Emperor Sigismund, 1410-1437
Decisions: Ended the Great Schism, which involved three rival claimants to the papacy; opposed the teachings of John Wycliffe (who taught sola scriptura, denied the authority of the pope and bishops, denied the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, and wrote against penance and indulgences); condemned as a heretic John Huss (who denied papal authority and taught wrongly about the nature of the Church and who was burned at the stake in 1415. In 1457 his followers established Moravian Church – the first independent Protestant church).

17. Florence: years – 1438-1443; Pope Eugene IV, 1431-1447; Emperors: Albert II, 1438-1439
Frederick III, 1440-1493

Decisions: Reaffirmed papal primacy against claims of conciliarists that an ecumenical council is superior to a pope; approved reunion with many Eastern Churches (which was only temporary).

18. Lateran V: years – 1512-1517; Popes Julius II, 1503-1513 & Leo X, 1513-1521
Emperor Maximilian I, 1493-1519

Decisions: Opposed erroneous teachings about the soul; reaffirmed the doctrine of indulgences; restated the relationship between popes and ecumenical councils; on the eve of the Protestant Reformation, failed to inaugurate an authentic and thoroughgoing reform of the Church.

19. Trent: years – 1545-1549, 1551-1552, 1562-1563; Popes Paul III, 1534-1549, Julius III, 1550-1555 & Pius IV, 1559-1565; Emperors Charles V, 1519-1558 & Ferdinand I, 1558-1564
Decisions: Affirmed Catholic doctrines against the errors of the Protestant Reformers; reaffirmed teachings on the role of the Bible and Tradition, grace, sin, justification by faith (but not by “faith alone”), the Mass as a real sacrifice, purgatory, indulgences, jurisdiction of the pope; initiated the Counter-Reformation; reformed the clergy and morals; promoted religious instruction; ordered the establishment of seminaries for the future training of priests.

20. Vatican I: years – 1869-1870; Pope Pius IX, 1846-1878

Decisions: Defined papal infallibility and primacy; condemned errors regarding the relationship between faith and reason (the council was cut short by war, its work to be taken up again by Vatican II).

21. Vatican II: years – 1962-1965; Popes John XXIII, 1958-1963 & Paul VI, 1963-1978

Decisions: Issued pastoral documents on the renewal and reform of the Church, intending to make the Church more effective in dealing with the contemporary world.
