Special Observances

Tuesday: St. John Paul II, Pope (Karl Jozef Wojtyła; born in 1920 in Wadowice, Poland. As archbishop of Krakow, he took part in the Second Vatican Council. On October 16, 1978, he was elected pope and took the name John Paul II. His exceptional apostolic zeal, particularly for families, young people, and the sick, led him to make numerous pastoral visits throughout the world. He left as a heritage to the Church a rich Magisterium and the promulgation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the revised Code of Canon Law for the Latin Church and Eastern Churches, and the third typical edition of the "Roman Missal". Pope John Paul II departed peacefully in the Lord on April 2, 2005. Pope Francis canonized him on April 27, 2014.)

Wednesday: St. John of Capistrano, Priest (Reformer of the Franciscan and Poor Clares; preached devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus (Jan 3); sought an end to the Western Schism; animated resistance against the Turks at the battle of Belgrade; patron of military chaplains.)

Thursday: St. Anthony Mary Claret, Bishop (From Catalonia; vigorous reforming bishop of Santiago, Cuba; founded (1849) the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary [C.M.F.] (Claretians), today numbering about 3,034 members; fostered credit unions and the apostolate of the press.)

Election Prayer for Life

O God, we acknowledge you today as Lord, not only of individuals, but of nations and governments.

We thank you for the privilege of being able to organize ourselves politically and of knowing that political loyalty does not have to mean disloyalty to you.

We thank you for your law, which our Founding Fathers acknowledged and recognized as higher than any human law.

We thank you for the opportunity that this election year puts before us, to exercise our solemn duty not only to vote, but to influence countless others to vote, and to vote correctly.

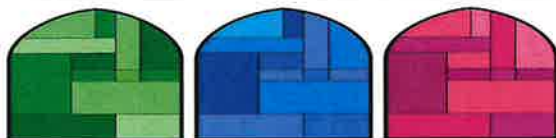

Lord, we pray that your people may be awakened. Let them realize that while politics is not their salvation, their response to you requires that they be politically active.

Awaken your people to know that they are not called to be a sect fleeing world but rather a community of faith renewing the world.

Awaken them that the same hands lifted up to you in prayer are the hands that pull the lever in the voting booth; that the same eyes that read your Word are the eyes that read the names on the ballot, and that they do not cease to be Christians when they enter the voting booth.

Awaken you people to a commitment to justice to the sanctity of marriage and the family, to the dignity of each individual human life, and to the truth that human rights begin when human lives begin, and not one moment later.

Lord, we rejoice today that we are citizens of your kingdom. May that make us all the more committed to being citizens on earth. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Special Parish Announcement

HOMEWORK

• Mission of the Catholic Church

The mission of the Catholic Church is grounded in Jesus' Great Commission to his disciples (in Matthew 28:19-20; and Sections 849-856 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church). Our mission is to continue the work of Jesus Christ on Earth. It is about bringing people closer to God and helping them live out their faith in everyday life.

⇒ Evangelization: sharing the Good News with everyone, everywhere

⇒ Sacraments: celebrating rites that confer grace, like Baptism, Eucharist, and Confession

⇒ Service: helping those in need, promoting social Justice, and working for peace

In essence, it is about love—love of God, and love of our neighbor. It emphasizes evangelization, the necessity of Church, and the responsibility of all members to spread the Gospel.

• Mission of Holy Spirit Catholic Church

Our mission is still being developed at this time.

Anyone involved in any Ministry at our Parish, must be compliant on your Ethics and Integrity training with VIRTUS.

Eucharistic Retreat

Holy Spirit Catholic Church

Article for the Holy Spirit Catholic Church Bulletin. 18 October 2024 Edition (Submission date: 15 October 2024; Submitted by Randy Munoz, parishioner)

Catholic Church's mission is to continue work of Jesus Christ, Archbishop Niendstedt explains St. Paul, Minn., Feb 12, 2010 <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/18649/catholic-churchs-mission-is-to-continue-work-of-jesus-christ-archbishop-niendstedt-explains>

After learning that the mission of the Church is unclear to some Catholics, Archbishop John C. Niendstedt has emphasized that the Christian mission is to “continue the works of Jesus Christ” and to make his name “known and loved.” The Archbishop of Minneapolis-St. Paul’s comments were published in The Catholic Spirit as part of a reflection on planning sessions for parishes and Catholic schools. The sessions collected comments from Catholics. According to the archbishop, Catholics hoped their faith would grow stronger in the future. They had “an overall sense of hopefulness.” Archbishop Niendstedt thought the most interesting statement suggested that the archdiocese should clarify the mission of the Church.

“I found this intriguing because I always assumed that the mission of the Church was clear to all her members,” he wrote. He quoted from “The Church,” a work of theologian Fr. Hans Kung authored before his more controversial writings: The first Christian disciples’ affirmation of this faith gave birth to a new community which celebrated the “breaking of the bread” with “glad hearts,” Fr. Kung wrote, quoting Acts 2. The theologian said this new group was an “eschatological community of salvation.” He used the theological word for “last things” such as heaven, hell, the general judgment of mankind by God, and the resurrection of the body.

Archbishop Niendstedt explained that the source of the Church’s mission is the conviction that Christ is risen and fully alive and present to the community of believing Christians. He noted Jesus Christ’s words at the start of the Gospel of Mark: “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel.”

The prelate then cited Jesus’ words in Matthew 28: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

He pointed to Christ’s words in John 20: “As the Father has sent me so I send you... Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Noting the root of the word “mission” means being “sent,” Archbishop Niendstedt said the Church is “sent into the world to continue the works of Jesus Christ.” He listed works such as preaching, teaching, healing, and acts of charity and justice.

Christians, empowered by the Holy Spirit, must “make the name of Jesus known and loved,” the archbishop added, using a phrase of Archbishop emeritus Harry Flynn. The celebration of Christ “in word and sacrament” is basic to this mission.

All the programs and activities of a parish can build up the Church’s mission and should be prioritized for that purpose, the archbishop wrote.
